

No matter
how tall the mountain along the race or how deep the river
as long as you have faith, hope will help in some way.

HOPEFUL ARTCARD NO.11 - India Sutherland, Y5, Holy Trinity VC Primary

I decided to use a lion because a lion has hope when on its hunts, also I drew a girl that had no hope so became homeless. I drew a mountain, race course and a river with a girl swimming in it. The mountain has someone climbing it. They got there because of hope and the racecourse is long but you can conquer it because of hope and finally the girl could swim because of hope.

Bible Passage

Such a large crowd of witnesses is all around us! So we must get rid of everything that slows us down, especially the sin that just won't let go. And we must be determined to run the race that is ahead of us. We must keep our eyes on Jesus, who leads us and makes our faith complete. He endured the shame of being nailed to a cross, because he knew that later on he would be glad he did. Now he is seated at the right side of God's throne! So keep your mind on Jesus, who put up with many insults from sinners. Then you won't get discouraged and give up.

Hebrews 12:1-3

Questions

1. If hope was an animal what would it be?
2. If hope was a sound what would you hear?
3. Do you think India is using the image of the race in the same way as the Bible passage?

Task

- *Research a charity such as Christian Aid or Shelter and find one example of how they bring hope to people.
- *Can you add to India's list of metaphors for situations requiring hope e.g. mountain, racecourse, river.
