

HOPEFUL ARTCARD NO.28 - Emily Holmes, Y6, Loscoe VC Primary

The Sun After the Storm

This piece resembles the better things to come after the bad times. The sun is always there, just as God is there to support you. Everyone has had a time when they felt like giving in, but you must remember that the storm will always give way to sunlight.

Bible Passage

Be glad about this, even though it may now be necessary for you to be sad for a while because of the many kinds of trials you suffer. Their purpose is to prove that your faith is genuine. Even gold, which can be destroyed, is tested by fire; and so your faith, which is much more precious than gold, must also be tested, so that it may endure.

1 Peter 1: 6-7

Questions

1. Do you think difficult or sad things can always get better?
2. Do you think it might help to believe in a God who supports you?
3. Are there any good things that can result from going through difficult times?

Task

*Interview a Christian and ask them how God supports them in their life.

