AGED 10-15 (YR. 6- YR. 10) FROM*

THE DIOCESE OF DERBY

Stepping Up

What is

It is the Derby Diocesan Residential Youth Centre – that means a place for young people to live together for a weekend and enjoy activities, food and discussions. Check out our website www.peakcentre.org.uk

Where is

It's in spectacular Edale in the north of the Peak District, a little village in a beautiful valley. Its about 75 minutes from Derby and 45 minutes from Chesterfield by road. There are also regular trains to Edale Station.

What is Stepping Up

It's for young people aged 10-15 (yr. 6 - yr. 10) who attend a church in Derby Diocese.

It's aimed at those who have never been on a Peak Centre Diocesan weekend before. (Although if you bring someone new we may have space for you)

It is suitable for young people who have been recently confirmed and because we have a list of these, they will get invited automatically.

It is also suitable for young people who have NOT been confirmed, but want to spend a weekend learning about God with other young people.

At the weekend you will:

- Get to meet new friends
- Meet other young people from other local churches
- Experience a variety of forms of prayer and worship
- Try new and exciting activities & have a go on the climbing wall
- This year we will enjoy some fireworks at the local village display.
- Eat great food
- Have your say about YOUR CHURCH
- Get to hear about other great youth events in the area

Alistair Langton (The Diocesan Youth Adviser), Sarah Tennant (Warden of The Peak Centre) and a team of leaders will keep you fed physically, spiritually and emotionally with good food, an afternoon of outdoor activities and regular worship slots.

What time does it start and finish?

Friday 7.30pm (eat before you get here) to Sunday afternoon (3.00pm)

What does it cost?

The event will cost £50, including all activities, meals and snacks, however we would encourage you to approach your church and see if they will provide a grant for you.

We have a number of grants available, please ask if you are unable to get financial support from your church.

What do I want to do if I want to come?

Contact The Peak Centre by phone on 01433 670254.
