

❖ How can we be inclusive schools?

❖ How can we be true to our Christian foundation?

❖ What does it mean to be distinctively Christian?

❖ What can a church school offer in terms of spirituality?

❖ How can we be confident enough to address differences?

RICHARD SUDWORTH

Revd Dr Richard Sudworth is Secretary for Inter-Religious Affairs to the Archbishop of Canterbury and National Inter-Religious Affairs Adviser for the Church of England. Before taking up this post in September 2018, he was a parish priest in inner city Birmingham and Chair of Governors of a CofE school with a majority of other faith children. Richard is the author of “Encountering Islam: Christian-Muslim Relations in the Public Square” (SCM, 2017) and “Distinctly Welcoming: Christian Presence in a Multifaith Society” (SU, 2007).
