Questions:

I have seen it as important to bring questions from individuals in the diocese to the Synod (regardless of whether I agree with the questioner).

If you have any questions for me then please feel free to use any of the contacts at the top of this page to get in touch.

Excellent communication skills will be essential for the next Synod. Working together across the usual 'tribes' building a future so that our church is effective at welcoming all people.

I am re-standing for General Synod as an Inclusive Candidate, in the fullest sense, supporting the ordination of women to all Orders of Ministry and I am committed to the mission of the church reflecting the diversity of all God's people. I am an experienced priest with responsibility for four parishes and pioneer communities in Derby City, as part of a team of diverse traditions, which includes inherited churches, fresh expressions, pioneer communities and a church plant.

Synod's work is broader than just the large gatherings. I have been an active member of the Standing Committee (which reviews the effectiveness of the Synod) and worked in committee to bring about the Wellbeing Covenant.

LLF will be an important theme in the next few years. I am committed to this process of genuine mutual flourishing, which means there is room for all, not just special provision for some, as a fundamental Anglican charism.

However it is legislative reform that will be vital for our future: implementing From Lament to Action, the Archbishops' Housing Strategy, the vision and simplification agenda, Pastoral Measure review, Safeguarding, reassessing diocesan structures, renewal of a broken CDM process and clergy remuneration. This work will not grab the headlines but I will engage collaboratively with my colleagues in this necessary task. I ask for your vote and that you also give priority to Alicia Dring and Jacqueline Stober (Clergy) and to Kat Alldread, Sian Kellogg and Jack Cooper (Laity).

I believe that together we will work as an effective and collaborative team with Bishop Libby for Derby Diocese.
