

Trees for life BURUNDI

The Bishop of Derby's Harvest Appeal 2023

“

In the Diocese of Bujumbura, seasonal rains, worsened by climate change, wash away the land - and with it go fields, crops, homes, schools and even people. Trees hold hillsides in place, prevent erosion and protect lives and livelihoods.

The people of Bujumbura urgently want to help themselves by planting thousands of trees.

- Bishop Libby

”

Your donation will help stop lives and livelihoods being washed away

Donate today at derby.anglican.org/trees

or

Scan the QR code

