

 A DAILY PRAYER OR REFLECTION FOR USE AT HOME BY WOMEN THROUGH THE AGES *
COLLATED BY THE REVD CANON CYNTHIA DOWDLE OBE & ULTAN RUSSELL (2020)

1. TERESA OF AVILA (1515-1582)
MYSTIC AND WRITER

Let nothing disturb you,
Let nothing frighten you,
All things are passing away:
God never changes.

Patience obtains all things
Whoever has God lacks nothing;
God alone suffices.

2. SUSANNAH WESLEY (1669-1742)
MOTHER OF CHARLES & JOHN

Enable me, O God,
to collect and compose my thoughts
before an immediate approach to Thee in prayer.

May I be careful to have my mind in order
when I take upon myself the honour to speak to the sovereign Lord of the universe.

Save me
from engaging in rash and precipitate prayers and from abrupt breaking away to follow
business or pleasure,
as though I had never prayed.

3. JULIAN OF NORWICH (BORN 1342) WRITER, ANCHORITE & MYSTIC

In you, Father all-mighty,
we have our preservation and our bliss.
In you, Christ,
we have our restoring and our saving.

You are our mother, brother, and Saviour.
In you, our Lord the Holy Spirit, is marvellous and plenteous grace.

You are our clothing;
for love you wrap us and embrace us.
You are our maker, our lover, our keeper.
Teach us to believe that by your grace all shall be well,

and all shall be well,
and all manner of things shall be well. Amen

4. MARY ROWLEY
THE CATHOLIC WOMEN OF AMERICA

Heavenly Father, In the beginning, You created the heavens and the earth, light and dark, sky and waters, plants, birds and creatures of the sea, living animals of all types and then male and female in the image of You.

With all that was created you were pleased and saw that it was all very good. Millions of years have passed since and mankind has not treated Your creation well.

Help us to be more aware of our use of resources and the products we choose so that we do not harm Mother Earth any further and so that we care for Your creation as You desire. Primarily, help us to love each other so that we respect one another in all actions and value all human life from conception to natural death. Amen.

5. REVD DR BARBARA GLASSON PRESIDENT, THE METHODIST CONFERENCE

We are not people of fear:
we are people of courage.

We are not people who protect our own safety:
we are people
who protect our neighbours' safety.

We are not people of greed:
we are people of generosity.

We are your people God, giving and loving,
wherever we are, whatever it costs
For as long as it takes wherever you call us. Amen

6. MARY SUMNER (1828 -1921)
FOUNDER OF THE MOTHERS' UNION

All this day, O Lord,
let me touch as many lives
as possible for thee;
and every life I touch,
Do thou by thy spirit quicken,
whether through the word I speak,
the prayer I breathe, or the life I live. Amen.

7. WORLD UNION OF CATHOLIC WOMEN'S ORGANISATIONS (WUCWO) (ADAPTED)

We have been especially invited, to contemplate the anguish of our suffering sisters.

Today we pray for all who are being abused, violated, oppressed, and in situations that deprive them of their dignity.

We pray for mothers yearning for adequate, clean drinking water and proper sanitation, sufficient food and health care for their families.

We pray for those struggling for survival, those broken and alienated, refugees and visible minorities experiencing repeated discrimination, bearing the brunt of indifference and oppression.

We pray for the day when women who are equal in ability have equal rights and can live in peace, joy and harmony

8. HILDEGARD OF BINGEN (1098 -1179) GERMAN HYMN WRITER & MYSTIC

Holy Spirit,
Comforting fire,
Life of all creation.
Anointing the sick, cleansing body and soul,
Fill this body!

Holy Spirit,
Sacred breath, Fire of love,
Sweetest taste, Beautiful aroma,
Fill this heart!

Holy Spirit,
Filling the world,
from the heights to the deep,
Raining from clouds, filling rivers and sea,
Fill this mind!

Holy Spirit,
Forgiving and giving,
uniting strangers, reconciling enemies,
Seeking the lost, and enfolding us together,
Fill these gathered here!

Holy Spirit,
Bringing light into dark places, igniting praise,
Greatest gift, our Hope and Encourager,
Holy Spirit of Christ, I praise you! Amen.

9. BISHOP MARIANN BUDDE BISHOP OF WASHINGTON THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

We are all walking the Emmaus Road now, moving from where we have been to where life is leading us.

No matter how we experience or interpret what is happening now and what lies ahead;
no matter how we may feel on a given day,
what we can be assured of is that Christ is with us.

We hope for a better day,
and pray for that day to come.

For now, we are walking on the road.
Take heart that you do not walk alone.

10. THE LUTHERAN WOMEN'S MISSIONARY LEAGUE OF AMERICA

Jesus is the Vine and we are the branches.
We can only grow as we are connected to Him!

He has made us His friends because He loves us.

We gather in His love, as His friends, to worship Jesus!

Jesus has chosen each one of us and appointed us to bear fruit for Him.

Make us fruitful for You, dear Lord, so that others might see Your love in us!

Live in His love and celebrate His grace as we bear fruit for Jesus!

As You laid down Your life for us, Jesus, may we live our lives for You! Amen!

11. CATHERINE BOOTH (1829-1990) CO-FOUNDER OF THE SALVATION ARMY

Don't let controversy hurt your soul.
Live near to God by Prayer.
Just fall down at his feet
And open your very soul before him,
and throw yourself right into his arms.

12. THE MOTHERS' UNION (ADAPTED)

Loving God,
we come here today
recognising once again
that you have called us to your service.

Each one of us is unique and so our service to you is unique,
let us celebrate our unique gifts at our meeting.

Let our different roles and ministries be a source of strength to us, a source of diversity within unity.

Guide us therefore, as we meet now,
all with something to offer
and something to receive.

As we consider the past
and plan for the future,
let our hearts and minds
be open to you and to each other.

13. BAPTIST WOMEN'S WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

Loving God, you made us in your image, male and female you created us.

You sent us forth to love
and tend the world which you created, commanding us to bear fruit and multiply so that your world might be transformed from glory to glory.

We come before you today conscious that we have allowed Your image within us
to become tarnished and dull.

Send your Holy Spirit upon us
as we meet together today,
and remake us,
transform us anew. Amen

14. CHURCH OF SCOTLAND GUILD

Heavenly Father,
thank you for loving me right where I am.
Help me to know your love deep in my heart, and enable that love to flow from me to those with whom I am in contact. Amen.

15. SISTER KITTY O'MEARA CONFERENCE OF (ROMAN CATHOLIC) RELIGIOUS ENGLAND & WALES

And the people stayed home.

And read books, and listened, and rested, and exercised, and made art, and played games, and learned new ways of being, and were still.

And listened more deeply. Some meditated, some prayed, some danced. Some met their shadows.

And the people began to think differently. And the people healed.

And, in the absence of people living in ignorant, dangerous, mindless, and heartless ways, the earth began to heal.

And when the danger passed, and the people joined together again, they grieved their losses, and made new choices, and dreamed new images, and created new ways to live and heal
the earth fully, as they had been healed.

16. EDWINA GATELEY FOUNDER OF VMM (VOLUNTEER MISSIONARY MOVEMENT)

Let Your God Love You
Be silent.
Be still.
Alone.
Empty
Before your God.
Say nothing.
Ask nothing.
Be silent.
Be still.
Let your God look upon you.
That is all.
God knows.
God understands.
God loves you
With an enormous love,
And only wants
To look upon you
With that love.
Quiet.
Still.
Be.
Let your God—
Love you.

17. ADAPTED FROM A SERMON BY RT HON
& RT REVD DAME SARAH MULLALLY
BISHOP OF LONDON

Let us pray that we as Christians are called to follow God's example, as dearly loved children to walk in the way of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us
as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Let us pray that we Christians,
alongside other people of faith and of goodwill,
live in and serve the whole community –
where there is no longer Jew or Greek,
there is no longer slave or free,
there is no longer male and female;
for all of us are one in Christ Jesus. (Galatians 3:28)

We are here to serve our communities and to bless them.

To carry hope and peace,
and to demonstrate the love of God to everyone.
Servants and neighbours to those around us.

Lord Hear Our Prayer.

18. ARCHDEACON SUE PINNINGTON, MBE
ARCHDEACON OF THE GWENT VALLEYS
(CHURCH IN WALES)

The world now is too dangerous and too beautiful for anything but love.

May your eyes be so blessed to see God in everyone.

Your ears, so you hear the cry of the poor.

May your hands be so blessed that everything you touch is a sacrament.

Your lips, so you speak nothing but the truth with love.

May your feet be so blessed you run to those who need you.

And your heart be so opened, so set on fire,
that your love, your love, changes everything.

19. US EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN

Almighty God,
we pray that You will bless our work in mission and ministry in the world.

We give thanks for the gifts of joy and wonder to be found in Your works.

Make us so thankful for the power of Your love,
given through Your Son, Jesus, that we may pray, labour and give liberally
to make known that love throughout the world.

We are women and girls of all ages and ethnic backgrounds, who offer You our ministries at home, in the workplace, community, & school. Bless us that our lives may shine forth the joy & wonder we share in Your Name, Amen.

20. INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

Creator God: You made us all in your image, male and female. Let us remember to celebrate each other's unique gifts.
Lord, hear us.

Father God: We are your daughters and sons,
neither slaves nor free.
We are all one in Christ Jesus.
Help us to be heirs to your promise.
Lord, hear us.

Christ our light: Show us the way
as we work for equity among races, creeds and gender.
Lord, hear us.

Jesus, friend of marginalised peoples everywhere:
We pray for all those whose family life
are torn apart by violence and economic hardship.
Lord, hear us.

Holy Spirit: We pray for all those whose lives are hampered by sickness and ill health.
We ask you to heal them.
Lord, hear us.

Spirit of joy: Visit our families
and imbue them with your love and strength.
Lord, hear us.

21. CHIARA LUBICH (1920-2008) ADAPTED
FOUNDER OF THE FOOLARE MOVEMENT

Christ ... came on earth for us, the fact that only he could pray in this privileged way wasn't enough for him. When he died for us and redeemed us, he made us children of God, his brothers and sisters.

Through the Holy Spirit he also gave us the possibility of being taken into the heart of the Trinity, in him, together with him, through him. So we too can make the divine invocation "Abba, Father" (Mk 14.36 and Rm 8:15) – "Daddy", "my Dad", "our Dad" with all that this entails.

We are certain of his protection, we feel secure, we are able to abandon ourselves blindly to his love, we have divine consolations, strength and ardour – an ardour that is born in the heart of those who are certain that they are loved.

22. JOSEPHINE BUTLER (1828-1906)
SOCIAL REFORMER AND FEMINIST

My God, I pray not for myself alone,
But for all those in our community
Who are as dear to me as my own soul?

Suffer us, till life ceases,
To bear each other's burdens,
Knit our hearts together in steadfast love.

May we walk together in the narrow way?
Upheld by mutual prayer.

Perfect in heaven the love begun on earth.
Smite us in an eternal bond,
And let nothing put asunder
Those whom you have joined together.

23. EDITH STEIN (1891-1942), SR TERESA BENEDICTA. PHILOSOPHER & MARTYR

O my God, fill my soul with holy joy, courage and strength to serve You.

Enkindle Your love in me and then walk with me
along the next stretch of road before me.

I do not see very far ahead,
but when I have arrived where the horizon
now closes down, a new prospect will open before me and I shall meet with peace. Amen

24. CHRISTINA ROSSETTI (1830-1894)
POET & HYMN WRITER

O God the Holy Ghost
Who art light unto thine elect
Evermore enlighten us.
Thou who art fire of love
Evermore enkindle us.
Thou who art Lord and Giver of Life,
Evermore live in us.
Thou who bestowest sevenfold grace,
Evermore replenish us.
As the wind is thy symbol,
So forward our goings.
As the dove, so launch us heavenwards.
As water, so purify our spirits.
As a cloud, so abate our temptations.
As dew, so revive our languor.
As fire, so purge our dross.

25. METHODIST WOMEN IN IRELAND

Almighty God, Lord of power and love,
Saviour who died for our sins and rose again,
Living Holy Spirit
Thank you for the gift of life,
Thank you for the offer of salvation,
Thank you for surrounding us with love and promising your power.

Help us to honour you in our lives,
to rejoice in our salvation,
to share your love with others and to go forward in your power to fulfil your will daily.

Help us to encourage one another,
to pray for one another,
and together to reach out to others
both here in Ireland and throughout the world.
In the name of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

26. NORA A. CUNNINGHAM, UNITED METHODIST WOMEN OF THE USA

Beloved God, be with us
as we navigate changing times, allowing us to find connection and spiritual sustenance with our human communities and our earth.
Equip us with the insight to care for one another – maybe from a distance but close in heart. Amen.

27. CATHERINE OF SIENA (1347-1380)
MYSTIC AND AUTHOR

Holy Spirit, come into my heart;
draw it to Thee by Thy power, O my God,
and grant me charity with filial fear.

Preserve me, O ineffable Love,
from every evil thought;
warm me, inflame me with Thy dear love,
and every pain will seem light to me.

My Father, my sweet Lord,
help me in all my actions.
Jesus, love, Jesus, love. Amen.

28. ELIZABETH FRY (1780 -1845)
QUAKER, PRISON REFORMER

O Lord, may we be directed what to do,
and what to leave undone,
and then may we humbly trust
that a blessing will be with us.

Enable us, O Lord,
to feel tenderly and charitably toward all.
Help us to have no soreness toward any.

Let us think no evil,
bear all things, hope all things, endure all things.
let us walk in all humility before all we meet,
and into your sight. Amen.

29. CLARE OF ASSISI (1194-1253)
FOUNDER OF THE POOR CLARES

I behold the Lord
I see His outstretched hands
I see the blood from His wounds.
I see the love in the eyes of Jesus.
I see His gracious acceptance of me.

Jesus has come out of the tomb –
He still has the scars, but now they are glorious,
with the glory of heaven.

Still looking at the Lord,
I reach out and touch Him.
I hold the Lord – and I am held in His love.

This prayers have been collated from a broad spectrum of countries, denominations, and traditions.

30. SR JOAN CHITTISTER US THEOLOGIAN & PENAL REFORMER

God of light and God of mystery, give us the faith to see you in the grey dimness of this time.

Give us the heart to hear,
in the silence of the sick,
the call to care for those in pain.

Give us the courage to find you where you do not now appear to be.

Give us the trust it takes to make our way through this uncertainty, this fear, this seemingly irredeemable sense of limitless loss to the recognition of the relentless hope that each seasonal cycle of life confirms.

You who made all things
for our good and our growth show us, too, now the power of darkness so that we might see newly—beyond the ephemeral — to what are really the gloriously important things in life. Amen

31. BISHOP SUSAN GOFF, VIRGINIA DIOCESE, EPISCOPAL CHURCH. EXTRACT

Abundant life given to us in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, proliferates with wild abandon in the fertile soil of fear, restlessness & denial. It grows like a beautiful native plant in the fertile soil of change and possibility. Life wants to live and is living itself now in us, in our communities, in our world.

As you live this week, keep your eyes and hearts wide open to notice: Life abundant growing untamed & out of control. Life growing in places you have never seen it before. Life, hope and beauty that your parched heart has been longing to experience.

Loving God, you give me life beyond my wildest imaginings. You pour down blessings like rain on a dry and barren land. Help me to notice the life that is springing up all around me in this season of continued uncertainty. Enable me to feel and embrace the abundant life that you have given me in Christ Jesus. Life wants to live, & I want to live in you. Show me how, more & more. Amen.
