Thank Him also for the different churches working together in harmony for this initiative and for transforming our hearts as we serve people with his compassion. We pray that the light of Christ will shine in dark places and that there will be divine appointments on each Street Pastor patrol across the nation. Pray that there will be protection and safety for Street Pastors on the streets and God will deliver our communities from evil. We ask God to help street Pastors build good relationships with police and others in the night time economy. Let the name of Jesus be honoured and His kingdom established in many lives through this work. Amen.
